Discussions:

Week behind and week ahead:

Week behind: Russia Debate very well attended. Chris Saul yesterday also went well, Film Screening had decent turnout.

Week Ahead: CE encouraging Standing Committee attendance at Mallory Factor (6pm) or to share/invite people to event as he has produced good speakers for the union in past. Comedy debate looking popular online and will probably have a full house. Christopher LeBrun on Monday requiring online publicity push – event to be created ASAP.

Vice President's Report

CUSEL Staff: a reminder to treat all professional members of Union staff with respect as NW and BB have a duty of care.

Appointments: DH and 2 more deputies have been appointed for AV. OJ has also been appointed webmaster.

Returning Officers: OM and FV volunteered; returning officers must be voted for unanimously – FV confirmed, NW as the other having been voted in unanimously.

Executive Elect's Report

2015 Ball: SC has guaranteed right to buy for themselves and 2 guests if they book by Wednesday. General release to members on Thursday and non-members on Friday.

Executive Officer

All events going to plan.

Treasurers Report

SGLS to inform speakers to pay for own train fares that will then be reimbursed.

Ents Officer Report

Meditation to be moved to 6pm instead of 5pm. CC to change this on online calendar.

Debating Officer

World trials on Saturday, Cambridge have lots of good teams.

IV taking place in 3 weeks but requires lots of help – need volunteers during the day and people to volunteer floor space in return for snacks.

Bursar's Report

ArcSoc/Fever event v successful but technical hitch in that we do not have the capacity to hold the amount of money taken – we have to buy a new safe.

Paddy taking care of the garden in removing trees and creating more space.

Television in the hall is not working and will be looked at by AV Nick.

Budget needing to be looked at asap.
